

ASF Meets With Pakistan Prime Minister Envoy To Offer Congratulations On Kartarpur Corridor Project

New York, NY (September 26, 2019) – Dr. Arvinder Singh (ASF), along with American Gurudwara Parbandhak Committee (AGPC) met with The Pakistani Prime Minister’s Special Envoy Late MR. Naeem ul Haque on the opening of Kartarpur Corridor between Pakistan and India. The Kartarpur Corridor project stood as a beacon of hope and a model for brokering peace between the two nuclear powers. The American Sikh Forum and (AGPC) representatives met Mr. Naeem ul Haque on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly and thanked the Pakistani government’s enormous efforts to successfully strive to open the Kartarpur Corridor in honor of the Founder of Sikh Faith, Guru Nanak Dev.

American Sikh Forum played its part by peaceful lobbying through social media, emails, personal conversations and messages of support to relevant stakeholders. The representatives of both nations signed the Kartarpur agreement on October 24th, 2019. We are thankful to both the Government of India and Pakistan.
