

ASF Meets with the Pakistani Consulate to Discuss Minority Issues

New York, NY (June 4, 2013) – The American Sikh Forum (ASF) met with Pakistan’s Consul General H.E. Faquir Sayed Asif Hussein to discuss safety of minority populations in Pakistan and to secure assurances for the protection of minority places of worship. Consul Hussein gave a warm reception to Dr. Arvinder Singh (ASF) and other members of Sikh advocacy organizations and addressed the concerns brought to the Pakistani Consulate. The American Sikh Forum thanked Consul Hussein for his attention to the concerns brought forth and hoped that the Pakistani Consulate would continue to collaborate with the Sikh community on further endeavors.
